

FIVE MARKS QUESTIONS ANSWERS FROM SELECTED CHAPTERS OF FLAMINGO

VALUE POINTS

CHAPTER-1 – LOST SPRING- ANEES JUNG

Q1. Living conditions of Seemapuri and Firozabad.

Ans-

Seemapuri	Firozabad
<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. mud houses and tin roof2. no sewage, drainage, running water3. Around 10,000 ragpickers; no identity except ration cards4. Food is more important than survival.5. For elders, ragpicking is daily bread, roof over head and means of survival.6. For children, it's a wonder as they sometimes get five or ten rupee note.7. Saheb likes tennis and wears discarded shoes having hole in one of them.7. Saheb gets job at tea stall, starts getting Rs. 800 per month but he is no longer free. He becomes slave to his master.	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. stinking lanes choked with garbage.2. crumbling walls, wobbly doors, humans and animals co-exist.3. bangle makers work in dark rooms and high temperature.4. many children become blind before becoming young.5. Mukesh's father couldn't renovate house and also could not send his two sons to school. All he could teach them was bangle making.6. Mukesh wants to be a motor mechanic and ready to walk to garage to learn.7. Few planes fly over Firozabad- people don't have many dreams.

CHAPTER-2- DEEP WATER- WILLIAM DOUGLAS

1. Douglas was walking on California beach and wave covered him and fear of water set in him.
2. His mother warned him not to go to Yakima river.
3. He joined YMCA club to learn swimming.
4. He had skinny legs and was under training.
5. He was sitting by the pool side and a big boy threw him in deep end of water.
6. Douglas decided to hit the bottom, come up and swim to the shore but failed three times. He was almost drowned.
7. But he wanted to do boating and swimming and also wanted to go in water of cascades.
8. So he hired a trainer who taught him step by step.
9. The trainer first made him go back and forth in water, then exhale and inhale in water and finally kick legs against water.
10. He ensured that he had learnt swimming at Lake Wentworth, Trigg's Island and Stamp Act Island.